My fondest memories are how much Skippy cared about his family. He had "rescue" moments for many family members, whether lending a listening ear, temporary housing, food, had family gathering in he and his wife Ruth's home. He was fun-loving, light-hearted and immensely talkative. He always had a conversation for you and was a great cook, most noted for his awesome barbecue. Forever will your memories remain in our hearts. Love you, cousin. God Bless your soul and may you rest in peace as you take your place amongst angels above.
