I am so sad to hear of Ms. Bennett's passing. She was the very first person that knew I was accepted into the Doctorate program, and she was so encouraging! We shared a special moment that morning when I was notified, one that I will never forget. Ms. Bennett, your kind heart and thoughtfulness has inspired me. I appreciate you taking the time to encourage me. You had a unique ability to always make me laugh and we just connected immediately.

I had the pleasure of working with Ms. Bennett and knowing her outside of work. To her family I pray that God gives them the strength to bear this loss

My friend! I'll miss your beautiful smile and your teasing! I love you so much for all you shared with me in the choir and Sunday School. I'm going to miss touching shoulder whenever I wanted your attention. I know you are in the arms of God now and safe from this old sinful world! Rest in his care 🙏

I remember how we use to sit and talk about your nieces and my granddaughter. The last time we spoke you asked me about the boss lady (my granddaughter), boss lady is the name you gave her. You will truly be missed. I find my self going into your office just standing in looking saying to myself (Bennett the Minute).My nickname for you. Ms. Carrier
