La Sandra Paris lit a candle in honor of Melba.

Aunt Sis, aka Melba Menefee was my first exposure to what a fierce, unapologetic, warrior princess looked like. The women of Wakanda have nothing on her. She was devoted to her family and used her quick wit and tenacious manner to protect her loved ones. My mother would always call her big sister if someone was "messing with her." Sis would take care of the situation. And she loved telling stories. So much so that she would not skip a beat if you dared to comment that you had heard that one before. You were going to hear it again so listen up! She was truly someone who "broke the mold" and will be profoundly missed. I will miss her stories, the sound of her voice, and the comfort of spending family time in her kitchen. There was always something to eat during my summer visits. And, adventures to experience with my cousins. I loved all the noise that I associated with summers in Texas. Times I'll never forget. My mother, her baby sister, was deeply saddened when she heard the news of her passing. All she could say was "not Sis." If her health was better she would be present to say a proper good bye. Rest In Peace Aunt Sis. My mother and I will miss you and take comfort that you are regaling family who have passed before you with the stories of all they missed. To all my cousins you are in my thoughts. Much Love, The Squires Family

To know Mrs. Menefee, was to know a beautiful gentle-hearted individual who, definitely possessed an abundance of love for family and family friends. She was very down to earth with a cute sense of humor and an infectious smile. Never would anyone feel like a stranger in her home. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. To the family.... May God grant you guidance and peace as you seek comfort in the days ahead. Patsy... sending you all the love only "forever" friends can share. Susan and Melvin Johnson

I have many fond memories of my time with Mrs. Menefee. I especially liked when we would sit at the kitchen table while she talked about her teaching career, childhood, college days, and how she met and married her husband. I never grew tired of her stories. I loved how her eyes would light up when she reminisced, especially when she talked about Mr. Menefee. She was always so welcoming and sweet to me, and I felt very loved in her presence. She was truly a blessing in my life. I will miss her loving ways and her wonderful stories. Rest In Peace Christine Paris

Farewell to our beloved (Melba Jernigan Menefee) I am always saddened by the death of a good person. It is from this sadness that I feel grateful and honored to have know Mrs. Jernigan Menefee. We share many conversations and laughter around the kitchen table. She touched the lives of many and yet endured the losses of several family members. I feel blessed to have known such a caring person. Her passing serves as a reminder that our time on this earth is limited and that "we" should all seize the opportunity to share love. I can think of no greater way to honor her than to live life to the fullest. Shirley Jones-Bedford

My fondest memory of Mrs. Melba Jernigan Menefee , affectionately known as Aunt Sis. I can remember when I was a kid , spending my summers at her childhood home with my siblings and cousins. We would complain about the heat and the bugs. People who lived in the community would come for a visit would say we were definitely from the city. Knowing we had something to look forward to made it all bearable. Going to Aunt Sis's house in Houston was the high light of our trip because we were going to Astro World. That was so much fun. Thank you for welcoming us in your home. Rest In Peace you no longer have to feel any pain or have any worries because God has wrapped his loving arms around you. To my cousins, Theopilus, Bobby and Patsy may God bless each of you, give comfort when needed and keep you strong during this most difficult time . With All My Love, Your Cousin Sandra

Ms Menefee will always be dear to my heart. She loved to be outside and would sit on the porch with us when we were little girls up to being grown women. Did I mention she made the best creamed corn in the world and always kept a fridge full of Cokes? My memories are not complete without a thought of Ms. Menefee. I will love her eternally. Denny
