Pumkin, you are One of a Kind! Not a day will go by without you being missed or thought of. You are a Real one and You are Genuine and Unique ♡ There were so many sides to your personality and all of them were what made you LOVED!!! Growing up with you we shares lots of love, hugs, smiles and tears! We had a friendship that couldn't be touched!!! Even when we were teens you were always Real and Honest to me even when it hurted and I loved you dor that! The day we met you immediately became a sister to me! Your mom was always welcoming and loving which made you the same. I pray that you send your love and presence to your kids and mom every single chance you get to sneak away when God's not paying attention!!! Lol you always been bad to the bone but still God fearing Amen! Love You P forever R.I.P Hiram Clarke's Finest miss you my sister

"Pumkin" you are gone, but you will never be missed. How can we forget about that beautiful infectious smile! You are loved by so many people that is blessed to have had you in their life. You are your mother's twin. When we look at Regina, we will always see and remember you. You are in a safe place now where you can be looked upon. May you R.I.H and wait on us to join you soon! We love you Pumkin. Respectfully, Aunt Denise Davis
