Aunt Esther was a woman of God, strength and dignity. She was dear to me because she stood for what's right and the truth. She was stern with a good, caring heart.Help her light to continue to shine in her children she leaves behind. Leaving a legacy involves far more than handing down a monetary inheritance or passing on a good family name. For those things will surely pass away and forever be forgotten. A lasting legacy, one that continues for eternity, is set in stone. Written on our hearts, and the hearts of our loved ones, belief in Jesus Christ as the Son of the Living God and Savior of the world is the legacy that lasts. I think we can all ask ourselves the questions, "What are the foundations of my legacy? Are they superficial things of earth or everlasting things of heaven?"Aunt Esther definitely has created everlasting things of heaven. Her belief in Jesus Christ is the legacy that last and she leaves behind for her family. Prayers for comfort, love, understanding, healing, grace and safety...Love y'all, Soraya "Cissy" Smith 🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏

Special Tribute to Esther--Time's Blessings.....Count time by lovely memories, Not by days and years--Count it by the handclaps, the smiles and happy tears; Count it by contentment and daily tasks well done, by star-filled skies at evening and mornings warm with sun--Count it by the friendships you've made along the way---and by the many times that God has smiled upon your day...With love to the family....Aunt Wilma in Hobbs

Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be. A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, different paths along the way, we all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay-----Our destination is a place, far greater than we know. To the Family --- Keep the Faith! Prayerfully Submitted by Aunt Wilma of Hobbs

Night falls, but day dawns to replace it; Grief comes, but time will ease the pain. Life ends, but death cannot erase it; In memory, love always will remain. There are those lives, death cannot diminish, their love radiates forever in the hearts of friends and loved ones. And their light shines on in the lives they touched for so many years. Prayerfully Submitted by all the Brooks Family of Aunts & Uncles.... Aunt Ethel & J.C. Baty of Albuquerque, The Late Thurman and Helen Brooks, Ben & Verlene Brooks, Donald & Wilma Brooks, of Hobbs; Betty Brooks of Denver, and Josephine Brooks of Albuquerque.
