Ms. Emma Jones had a special light, she brought out the good things in people around her and knew how to make me laugh. She always was so happy to see me and talk with me and that made me always happy to see her. I would always look forward to any opportunity I had to visit with her. She will be seriously missed.

"Emma Jean Jones is forever my friend. Her quick wit and gentle but thoughtful presence were the first things I would see in the morning and the last things I would see before I left for the day. I share the loss with many and I too share the grief. I also shared some of her joy and many of her beliefs. Many of us are better for having known Emma Jean Jones."
