Never Could Have Made it Without You ..To each of you, we simply say "Thank You!" Our hearts are so full from this unexpected loss. Your cards, texts, emails, flowers, phone calls and physical presence, has given us a ray of sunshine in our most difficult days. Your love for Connie is measured by these actions and she would be so very pleased to know the depths of your love. We ask for your continued prayers as we began our new life without her earthly presence. May God's blessings continue for each of you.The Family of Connie R. Elliott Williams

Vincent, I wanted so much to be there with u to celebrate Connie's home going but she will always be in my heart. We had so many good times!!! We worked through the books that she just published. We talked about the Lord & how he worked in our lives. He took u before I was ready for u to leave & I am sad. I know I will see u again but God, The Father knows what is best. I love u my sister with all my heart. Sandra K. Danford, Milam, Glover
