Ms. Tarolynn Scott

DEC 5, 2021

Love bears all things, believes all things, endures all things, love never ends. I
Corinthians 13:7

Lynn is in a better place; a place free from all pain; a place better than she has ever been before, HEAVEN! My Daughter - Our Sister, transitioned on December 4, 2021. She is now at rest.

The Celebration of her life will be Saturday, December 11th, 10 AM at Silverlake Church, 1865 Cullen Parkway, Pearland, Texas. She will lie in state prior to service beginning at 9 AM. We welcome our extended family and friends to join us.

Interment - Private.

We wish to express our deepest gratitude for your prayers, kindness and sympathy during this most difficult time. Due to the state of the pandemic, we will not be receiving guests at our residence.

Celebrating and giving thanks for her life are her mother, Eunice, siblings, Deborah, James Jr. ((Dana), Clyde (Tonya), Charlotte "Niecy" (Bernard) and Virginia (William).

Arrangements Entrusted to:

Betty Compton lit a candle in honor of Tarolynn.

To Sister Eunice Scott and Family, Be Inspired to know that God is in charge of what ever you are going through and He will keep you safe through your journey. No one can handled this alone. I am praying for Peace and Mercy to get you and your Family through this. Sis. Betty Compton, Bethel Institutional Missionary Baptist Church
