Carolyn Joyce Sadberry Brown was the sixth of seven children born to Lillie and Heslip Riley Sadberry on January 8, 1930 in Robertson County, Benchley, Texas. She accepted Christ at an early age, uniting with Wilson Chapel Baptist Church under the pastorage of Reverend E. V. Hill. She later united with Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church in Houston, Texas, where she served as a member of the Deaconess Board.

Her early education was done at Dorsey Loughridge School, Benchley, Texas. She graduated from Blackshear High School, Hearne, Texas. She matriculated to Prairie View A&M College from which she received both the Bachelor of Science degree and the Master of Arts degree in the field of Home Economics. Upon graduation she was employed at Dunbar High School, Livingston, Texas; Prairie View A&M College, Prairie View, Texas; A.M.T. Mrs. Carolyn Joyce Sadberry Brown

JAN 8, 1930 - MAY 17, 2022

She was united in holy matrimony to Charles W. Brown on October 1, 1955. To this union, three children were born – Daphne Brown Pradia, Pamela J. Taylor, and Candace L. Johnson. She held memberships in the following organizations: Lifetime Member of Prairie View A&M University National Alumni Association, Prairie View A&M Houston Alumni Chapter, Lifetime member Retired Teachers Association, The National Association of Royalty Owners, Inc., Board Member of OSR Water Corp., American Brahman Breeders Association, Texas Brahman Breeders Association, Robertson County Beef Improvement Association, Texas Southwestern Cattlemen’s Association, Certified F-1 Female Program Association, Landowners Association of Texas, and Texas Farm Bureau.

In her own words, Carolyn Joyce can be remembered for her administrative, organizational, and money management skills as well as her frugality, refinement, good judgement, and sophistication. She loved to bake, she loved to make jelly, she loved piano and organ music, and she absolutely loved sports. She can be remembered in her later years for her diverse interest in working on improvements in the Benchley Community, such as working with the following initiatives:

1. OSR board to get water in rural areas
2. Public Utility Commission for toll free telephone calls in surrounding towns
3. County Commissioner of Precinct 2 for improvements on county roads, 911 services, and names for county roads
4. Union Pacific Oil Company – Oil Leases
5. Family Land Heritage Program – Land in Sadberry Family for over 100 years

A crowning accomplishment was the work that she did to preserve the Sadberry Family Legacy by securing a State of Texas historical landmark for the Wilson Chapel Cemetery. Carolyn Joyce found great affirmation in this work, as the origin of the Wilson Chapel Cemetery dates back to the era of Carolyn's grandparents, John Riley and Alice Sadberry, and to her parents, Heslip and Lillie Sadberry -- all of whom granted the land for not only the Wilson Chapel Cemetery, but also the Wilson Chapel Church, and the community school (Mount Peavy School later known as the Couch School and later renamed the Wilson Chapel School).

She did a great work, tirelessly, in partnership with her husband Coach Charles

Brown to support many young men in sports over the span from their high school years through their adult years. She undergirded and honored both her husband and her many “sons” from the 1950’s through this decade by doing whatever was necessary, through providing support by taking players home after practice and through initiating and driving the creation and design of the PVILCA Ring and Ring Ceremony. Her character and commitment truly shone brightly when, during the times of segregation when washing machines and buses were not provided for the football program, she washed the togs and drove players home after practice. She encouraged and equipped her many “football sons” both as their teacher and as their loving “football mother”.

Her beauty will be remembered as a sweet, humble, outspoken servant of the Lord, with a kind and gentle demeanor. Carolyn Joyce’s family was her life, and she was the life of her family. Carolyn Joyce is survived by her loving and devoted husband, Charles W. Brown; daughters, Daphne Ann Brown Pradia, Pamela Joy Brown Taylor, Candace Brown Johnson (Rev. Artis); three grandchildren, Rachel Antoinette Taylor, Caitlin Madison Johnson, Artis Lee Johnson, III; one brother, Heslip R.
