Chris, By following all instructions that help, you WILL be made whole. FATHER have taken the note of the life which your immediate family members have lived before others. This load that you are shouldering is heavy when grieving alone. During these times, FATHER has promised to give you all of the help you need to face every "false expectations appearing real" in (Is. 41:10.) These 4 advisory, FATHER leave with each of children that are met with bereavement.¹ FATHER is present.² FATHER claim you as his son during uncertainties.³ FATHER will help you be refreshed with the proper attitude from the scriptures.⁴ FATHER will give you unlimited energy to carry HIS righteousness into soul's territory to ministered to them.⁵ FATHER will ALWAYS confirm his word with accuracy. Your parentage and sibling were dear to the vineyard. Many hold up you, your wife and the responsibility that you bear through these moments. I would always see Pastor Cunningham at camp meetings with his colorful attire, big hats and big smile! He was our speaker at a "Couples Night Out" event, held at Hebron SDA Church in Houston Texas, where Bro & Sis V. Thompson were directors of Family! His wit, laughter and council will never be forgotten, he made the evening so much fun, we had a ball!" He also became a member of "Making Life Changes" prison ministry that I too was a part of, he enjoyed it so much! He had a great passion for those behind bars! He and his wife were so kind, he with his "contagious laugh" and she always with "words of wisdom & comfort" Great, Great couple that will be missed! My heart and prayers to Chris and the entire family! MyraFosterWashington, Tx
