I was probably the first kid that they met when they moved into the neighborhood. I remember them saying come here boy and stop teasing my dog. What's your name and where do you live. They knew my mom and dad and played cards and always had a good time. In the 50+ years of knowing her she always greeted me with a smile and laughter. So many memories of the boat and lake Somerville. I'll miss her alot

Miss Johnny was one of the nicest people I've met, how I met her , the dog died and Mr. O'Dell asked a friend of mine Toppo Joe to bury him I think that was in the late 70s or early 80s. Both her and Mr. O'Dell were nice people

My condolences to the family. Hopefully, you are resting in peace and in heaven with your parents, and three siblings. You transitioned two months and four days after the demise of your brother, Willie. The family is in my prayers, especially Eddie who was like their little brother. Again, RIP Johnnie Mae.
