I have known David and his wife Jackie for over 40 years. I met him when I moved to the then Hillcroft Square Apartments, where he was the maintenance man. And, from that moment, a wonderful friendship began. Since then, he became not only a great friend; but became more like a brother to me. We ate, drank, played dominoes, and listened to good music. His house was like my house because he was a kind hearted person. In over 40 years we "Never" had an argument or harsh words towards one another. He was always the same. I never met anyone in my life who was a kinder, and such forgiving person than him. I will miss him very dearly, as he was truly my friend and was a regular part of my daily life. I will keep him alive in my heart for as long as I live. I am so hurt right now. Bye Dave. Big Mike.

I will never forget the hospitality Uncle Junior and Aunt Jackie showed every time my Dad (Norris Darden) brought us down to Houston from San Antonio. It was always a loving environment. Please know that the Darden Family is standing with and in prayer for the children and grand-children who mourn this loss.
