As I reflect upon Attorney Fad Wilson, I remember him in law school, passing the state bar of Texas, as a law partner, as a groomsman at my wedding, and most of all I remember Judge Wilson as kind and considerate friend. Although God has called him home, he will live in my mind forever. For Attorney Wilson death is not the end but the beginning. -Donald Dewberry

My deepest sympathy to the family. Fad was a long time friend since B.O.L.D. days in the 70's; plus I worked with him at Municipal Courts. He was a great guy. Then I met Mrs. Wilson at the Imani School where my grandkids used to attend. She is loved as well. I'm praying for strength and comfort for the family.

My family will always remember Judge Fad. My daughter interviewed Fad Wilson after one of my showcase performances. Fad was entertainment Law advisor to one of my companies. He knew my daughter was a new reporter fresh off of her communications degree acceptance speech. He took the time to be very thorough with his answers and allowed her to follow up her questions and treated her as a professional while supporting her fledgling new career. He has been a wonderful friend and willing counsel. We will always cherish his generosity.
