I first met Ericka on May 4, 2023. She was so bubbly and sweet. She was looking for a new field of work. We talked about her necklace "Happy" she said it was a reminder to stay positive. We talked for over an hour. She was always such a delightful lady. She will be greatly missed. So glad our paths crossed. I hope she gets to meet my husband and they have great laughs together as well.

E...love you forever and always. We had so many wonderful childhood memories in Elementary school together. You always had my back fighting my battles with me not letting anyone mess with me. Like me and Herman, you and me were always getting into something 🤪 It was a funny and amazing age of innocence. Until next time E...from all of your cousins - Rest in Peace love ❤️ and special prayers to Aunt Detra, your siblings, and beloved children. 🙏
